CITATION

Investigation of a complaint submitted revealed actions taken by you which violate sections of the law regulating the practice of physical therapy.

A Citation is hereby issued to you in accordance with Section 125.9 of the Business and Professions Code for the violations described below.

On November 25, 2003, the Board received a complaint alleging that Andrew Choi, P.T. and Rekha Lund, P.T. at UCLA Medical Center in Los Angeles altered medical records. Based on the medical records reviewed, it has been confirmed that you are in violation of the law regulating the practice of physical therapy for documenting patient records with false information from the period of June 2003 through July 2003. These actions constitute unprofessional conduct.

FIRST CAUSE FOR CITATION

1. Section 2261 of the Business and Professions Code

Knowingly making or signing any certificate or other document directly or indirectly related to the practice of medicine or podiatry which falsely represents the existence or nonexistence of a state of facts, constitutes unprofessional conduct.

The board may, after the conduct of appropriate proceedings under the Administrative Procedure Act, suspend for not more than 12 months, or revoke, or impose probationary conditions upon any license, certificate, or approval issued under this chapter for unprofessional conduct that includes, but is not limited to, one or any combination of the following causes: (i) Conviction of a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or of the State Medical Practice Act, or violating, or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violating of, or conspiring to violate any provision or term of this chapter or of the State Medical Practice Act.
